

The Baltimore Station's Raised $108,297 at 23rd Annual "Homerun For Recovery"

June 5, 2015

9:49 AM MST

The Baltimore Station's Raised $108,297 at 23rd Annual "Homerun For Recovery"

Photo by Chip Somodevilla/Getty Images

The Baltimore Station's 23rd Annual Homerun For Recovery raised $108,297. Homerun For Recovery was held in April at Nick's Seafood Restaurant. The event featured former Baltimore Orioles player and Hall of Flamer, Chris Hoiles. More than 350 attendees enjoyed "a delicious raw bar, great music, and a live and silent auction with a variety of items including Orioles and Ravens memorabilia, travel packages and gift certificates to restaurants around Baltimore – all of which were generously donated." You can see pictures from this year's event by clicking here. The Baltimore Station " is a therapeutic residential recovery program that helps homeless men – primarily veterans – bound by drug and alcohol addiction break the cycle and become self-sufficient members of society." You can learn more about The Baltimore Station by clicking here. Thank you to everyone who helped to make this event a success.