

BALTIMORE BUSINESS JOURNAL

September 28-
October 4, 2018

OUT & ABOUT

MMHA HOSTS GOLF OUTING

The Maryland Multi-Housing Association (MMHA) hosted its 21st annual golf tournament on July 7 at the Mountain Branch Golf Club in Joppa. The event raised $10,000 for The Baltimore Station, a residential treatment program supporting veterans and others transitioning from homelessness and substance use to self-sufficiency. Since 2009, the housing industry group has donated $132,455 to the Baltimore Station.

COURTESY OF GIOVANNI MEDORO/MMHA

1. Lori Crook, MMHA; John Friedel of the Baltimore Station and residents; Mike Stark and Keisha Warrick from Home Properties; and Todd Troester, the Baltimore Station
2. Mike Crampton, Habitat America LLC; Donna Boesel, Walter Electric; Mike Stark, Home Properties
3. Jim Krout, Atlantic Realty Group; Jim Fasano, Moran's Elite Termite & Pest Management; John Moran Jr., Moran's Elite Termite & Pest Management; Steve Goodley, Scuba Steve Diving Service